

Administration Action In Libya Makes Them Accomplice To Murder/My Thoughts On The Impending Election!

A word from Evangelist Dave Kistler

If you thought that the Obama Administration's complete failure of appropriate response in Libya was going away, think again! As more details emerge, it is glaringly obvious that the Administration's "non-response" is equal to being an accomplice to murder.

In addition to the growing calls for release of the "real time" video of the attack (what Obama and team watched live as it occurred), Charles Wood, father of slain ex-SEAL, Tyrone Wood, is going after the President directly, asking for him to come clean on what actually happened and why he (and his State Dept.) refused to offer desperately needed assistance when it was asked for three times.

As all this is unfolding, reports are now emerging that a top General has been relieved of duty over his refusal to "stand down" as ordered. General Carter Ham, commander of Africom, informed the Pentagon that he had a rapid response team ready to inject themselves into Benghazi if needed. Evidently, he was never called on to send that team. Secretary of Defense, Leon Panetta, has claimed that Ham was part of the decision NOT to send support for Ambassador Stevens and the three other Americans killed, even though they all but begged for that support. Ham overtly denies Panetta's claim. In fact, Ham ignored the "stand down" order and commenced preparations to send in his team--a decision that cost him his position. Reports claim that within 30 to 60 seconds, the second in command relieved Ham of his duty for ignoring the disastrous "stand down" order--an order that was the equivalent of signing four American's death certificates.

Exactly what happened many never be fully known. One thing is for sure, Obama will do all in his power to postpone the revelation of the truth past the November 6 elections, if not permanently! What MUST NOT happen is for this to go unrevealed and unpunished!!! Parents and family members of those who died deserve better! The American people deserve the truth!!! Our country deserves to know EXACTLY what our "Commander-in-Chief" DIDN'T do, and why he chose that course!!! The entire country deserves to see what has been going on the last four years--activity that will uncover the Islamic permeation of our State Department, the highest echelons of our government and even the White House!

Some of us have been issuing a warning for over four years--a warning that has been ridiculed by some. Now, every citizen who's paying attention sees what is going on. Every preacher worth his salt understands the brink on which we sit relative to our religious liberty! Every discerning Christian is burdened beyond belief at the mere thought of having this empty-suited liar sitting in the Oval Office for another term--at the end of which we will have lost the final fragments of our sacred freedom!

We have a mere six days remaining. In six days, we will know what kind of country we will give to our children and grandchildren. In six days, we will see in vivid color whether we remain a free people, or take giant leaps toward socialism, Marxism, radical Islamic acceptance, and a total anti-God agenda!!! For my part, I'm praying diligently and directly that Obama will be resoundingly defeated!!!! I mean by such a large margin that it will send a statement of how strongly "we the people" reject all that is Obama!!! We reject his errant policies! We reject his intrusive approach! We reject his narcissistic personality! We certainly reject his vision for our beloved nation--that of reducing it to third world status in order to make a global government possible! We MOST DEFINITELY reject, in wholesale fashion, his fondness for an ideology that is bent on global domination and complete conquest of the West!!! We completely, and in the strongest terms possible, reject all that has to do with Islam and its murderous treachery!!!

In its place, we embrace a Christian worldview. We wholeheartedly support the acknowledgement of God and His place (i.e. involvement) in our nation! We revere and embrace the founding principles of our nation--principles that have caused us to thrive for over 236 years. We unequivocally support God's view of life, marriage, and the family! We believe in sound fiscal policy and a strong military--one that is unsurpassed and unequalled any where in the world! We support integrity, honesty and transparency! We cling tenaciously to our Second Amendment right to bear arms--for protection against enemies, foreign and DOMESTIC! We desire to advance God's Word throughout our land and to every foreign nation! We respect, honor and encourage freedom of conscience--a freedom that tells government (when it intrusively tries to dictate our beliefs), "we ought to obey God rather than men!"

What we will be voting on November 6, is one of two men who will facilitate one of two polar opposite philosophies. In all honesty, I cannot comprehend how anyone, especially a Bible-believing Christian, could even consider voting for Barack Obama! As well, it is beyond me that anyone could consider not voting at all, or wasting a vote on a candidate who cannot win! To me, the choice is overwhelmingly clear! In fact, it is no choice at all! But he's a Mormon, you say! Maybe so! But, at least he is a man who acknowledges God, has a healthy fear of the Divine, and desires to adhere to the principles embedded in our precious founding documents!

If God is gracious on November 6, and America's Trojan Horse of a President is gone, I will shout so loudly that you will hear me from Florida (which is where I will be). However, my exuberance will not be an arrogant expression of "we won, they lost!" No, it will be the temporary expression of gratitude to a loving God, who in wrath remembers mercy. Then, I will begin preparation for even more earnest prayer and involvement--so that we don't waste the opportunity that God has afforded us! Are you with me?!
